

Announcements.

Throughout the Manufacture of this justly celebrated brand of Table Waters all ingredients used are guaranteed of purest quality. The machinery used is the most modern type and we have gone to great expense to erect our plant on latest scientific principles which has such a great advantage over the old process of manual labour still in vogue through the Colony, thereby further ensuring the purity of our products.

The Manufacture is under the personal supervision of a QUALIFIED ENGLISH CHEMIST, who has devoted years to bring this branch of the trade to perfection.

The Water used is analysed daily to ensure of its absolute purity, and when we say that our method of manufacture has been approved by Sanitary and Medical Authorities, it is in itself a sufficient guarantee.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Kwangsi Rebellion.

We note that our morning contemporary has at last come to the conclusion that there is something in the Kwangsi Rebellion, though it still is rather dubious about the matter and is a trifle afraid of handling the subject. As a matter of fact what the Canton Correspondent of the Daily Press says about the rebellion is very little more than a recapitulation of what has appeared in our columns during the last month or so. He gives the names of a few places occupied by the rebels, etc., and admits that the affair is serious. We must point out, however, that the correspondent in question does not appear to know much about the Kwangsi Rebellion, for he makes out the rebel headquarters to be at Nanning. Now Nanning is a treaty port, and we should certainly have been informed had it fallen into the hands of the rebels. If this is the description of reliable news which our contemporary waits for before believing in things, all we can say is that we prefer to trust to our own sources of information.

Our readers will doubtless have noticed that a good deal of our rebellion news is drawn from Wuchow and Nanning, and these places, being much nearer to the scene of the disturbance, are much more likely to be in possession of authentic news than Canton. As we have frequently pointed out, the Chinese Authorities have done their best to minimise matters and have tried to induce the Consuls to believe that there is no such thing as a rebellion in progress. If such is indeed the case we should like to know why the Canton and Peking officials are so concerned over the doings of what they call a few robbers. As a matter of fact the Kwangsi rising is on a much larger scale than any rising of recent years, and if the rebels succeed in obtaining more arms, and have a really capable leader, we shall not be at all surprised at seeing the movement spread to an extent which will make even our morning contemporary admit that there is danger to the dynasty in it. If our contemporary will take the trouble to make enquiries in Wuchow, it will be found that cargo boats have ceased running to Nanning for some time past. If this does not mean that Nanning is cut off, we must admit that we do not understand the meaning of the term.

The Eruption in the West Indies.

The Spirit of Il-luck seems to dog the steps of the West Indies continually. First their sugar industry was ruined by the introduction to the European market of beet sugar, next came a fearful hurricane, almost wiping out the entire plantations of one of the Islands, and now we have a tremendous volcanic eruption reported, which bids fair to utterly ruin three at least of these unfortunate little dots in the ocean. To all accounts the eruption in the West Indies throws into the shade the tremendous explosion of Krakatau. Forty thousand persons have already perished—and the volcanoes are still active. In all probability the whole aspect of the affected islands and the surrounding seas will be altered, and when matters are once more reduced from chaos to order, it will take years for the destroyed plantations and towns to be once again brought to the state in which they were prior to the eruption.

It is not at all surprising to hear that the explosions were audible in the neighbouring islands. When Krakatau blew up, in the early eighties, the reports were distinctly heard in Singapore, and in Sandakan an armed launch was sent down the coast to look for pirates, who were supposed to be conducting a naval engagement somewhere in the vicinity. The eruption of Great Sangir, which occurred in the early nineties, was also heard in Sandakan, and that too was at first put down to a piratical attack on one of the outlying islands. The scene of desolation in Sangir was pitiful in the extreme. For miles the whole country was a sea of boiling mud and lava, under which the inhabitants were buried with their houses and domestic animals, while here and there the gaunt, scorched limbs of some giant tree protruded, only adding to the general sense of desolation and death.

Doubtless the survivors of this last misfortune which has fallen upon the West Indies will be put to the utmost straits to obtain the bare necessities of life. Relief has probably already been sent, but that should not prevent Hongkong adding its mite to the fund which must of necessity be started for their relief and support.

Tantalizing.

It is, to say the least of it, somewhat tantalizing to see the rain pelted down, and the gullies on the hillsides all transformed into so many raging cataracts, and yet to know perfectly well that one cannot get a drop of water from the mains. Surely this should be an object lesson to our Officials. We are assured that if the Government were to apply for a couple of experts from the Indian Irrigation Department that they would, and at comparatively small expense too, run a system of catchwater drains round the hillsides of Hongkong, so that all the water at present running to waste would be run off into the reservoir. What we require here is greatly increased catchment area, and much larger storage capacity.

To-day's rain has certainly given us promise of better times to come, but still we are told that it will require several days more rain to admit of a full supply of water being turned on. As an illustration of how little the Colony has benefited by the rain of the last few days we may remark that the water level at Tytam is still 86 feet, 4 inches below the overflow, a fact which speaks most eloquently for itself.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

THE TERRIBLE VOLCANIC DISASTER.

LONDON, May 10th.
A serious volcanic eruption is now reported from St. Vincent, West Indies, and the inhabitants are fleeing from the island.

The Governor of Barbados cables that reports resembling artillery have been audible at Barbados proceeding from St. Vincent, and that these have been followed by darkness, with thunder, and showers of dust, covering Barbados inches deep. It is now estimated that 40,000 persons have perished at Martinique.

Eye-witnesses say that the volcano suddenly exploded, and that a tempest of steam and mud poured on St. Pierre, followed immediately by a whirlwind of fire, with showers of rocks, lasting a quarter of an hour, the whole town being instantly ablaze.

THE VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS IN THE WEST INDIES.

The Senate of the United States of America has voted the sum of one hundred thousand dollars for the relief of the sufferers by the volcanic disaster at Martinique.

Nothing further has yet been heard from St. Vincent.

Five thousand refugees gathered in the hills around St. Pierre, Martinique, are being gradually removed.

It is feared that the destruction has been far wider than at St. Pierre alone, and it is stated that three large communities besides St. Pierre have been annihilated. The cloud of ashes, dust, and smoke extends for 150 miles to the windward of the eruption, causing twilight.

Recently, says the Nagasaki Press, the Japanese, on these steamers, were replaced by Japanese, and in course of time the Chinese engineers and a putters are also to be changed.

Ltd. were destroyed by fire last night, the estimated loss amounting to about yen 400,000. A portion of the works was saved. The Phoenix, Palatania, Caledonian, Commercial Union, National of Ireland, Sun, and L'Union are the foreign Insurance Companies concerned.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES.—The return giving the number of cases of Communicable Diseases, which occurred in Hongkong during the week ended the 10th May, 1902, shows:—Twenty-four cases of Bubonic plague with eighteen deaths (twenty-two Chinese, one Indian, and one Malay); Thirty-two cases of cholera with twenty-nine deaths (two European, twenty-five Chinese, and four Asiatics); Three cases of Diphtheria. Four cases of Small-pox with four deaths, all Chinese.

THE PAOTING-TAIYUEN RAILWAY.—According to a Paoting, capital of Chihli province, dispatch, work on the proposed Railway between that city and Taiyuen, the capital of Shansi province, which is in the hands of a British Company, was to be commenced on or about the 1st instant. The dispatch further states that the proposed railway between Peking and Kalgan (Changchowan), which is also in the hands of a British syndicate will be begun sometime in August next.—N. C. D. News.

THE JAPANESE BRAIN.—A distinguished Japanese anatomist has made a prolonged research on the Japanese brain. As the result of an examination of 600 brains he found that the male brain is on the average 150 grams heavier than the female, a proportion that holds in Caucasian skulls. Man's brains as a rule decrease after the age of 50 to that of 60. He asserts that he has so far established little or no difference between the oriental and occidental brain.

THE INSURRECTION IN CHIHLI.—A dispatch from Peking states that the Grand Council has been informed by Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai that the insurgents of Kuangtung-shien, who murdered amongst others a French priest, number over 6,000 fairly armed men, and that they have retreated into the hills in the vicinity of the city, where for centuries have been the strongholds of generation after generation of bandits. The Chihli provincial authorities therefore anticipate some trouble in suppressing these insurgents.—N. C. D. News.

NEW RESIDENCE OF THE I.G.—Sir Robert Lant's new house at Peking is almost finished and he expects to move in a few days. It is built on the site of the old one and in just the same style. The garden has been laid out most artistically, with the band stand placed in the centre, and Sir Robert intends to start his garden parties as soon as he gets settled down. A new gateway, very beautifully carved, has been made, exactly similar to the former one which was taken by the Italians together with a slice of his grounds.

HONAN NOTES.—According to a Kaifeng dispatch, the district magistrate of Honan province, having been informed the other day that there was an anti-missionary riot in a village outside the city walls, went at once to suppress the rising. Upon returning to the city, however, the magistrate found himself shut out of his own city for several hours by the inhabitants. It is reported that the R.C. Bishop of Honan, Monsgr. Anshelm (?) having heard that a certain priest in the province was making unnecessary exactions, on both converts as well as non-converts, has sent a secret agent to investigate matters on the spot.—N. C. D. News.

THE TIENTSIN-PEKIN RAILWAY.—A native paper says that negotiations have been going on for some time between the British Minister and Yuan Shih Kai respecting the restoration of the Tientsin-Peking Railway. The former demanded the employment of two British officers, one as a director and the other as an adviser to the working of the line. The latter however refused to concede. Hu Yun Mei, has since approached the British Minister on the same subject and in a way of compromise suggested that the two British officers demanded shall be under the control of the Chinese, to which amendment the British Minister yielded. Yuan is still afraid to concede and said that he would first formalise his throne on the matter before any definite settlement could be made.

ALLEGED BOXERS.—Reports were current early in the week in Peking that the Boxers were again openly demonstrating at Ching Ting, in the Lu-Hang line, says the P. O. C. Times of 3rd inst. The metropolitan authorities at once ordered the Viceroy to see to the matter, and there was a belief that he was about to proceed to the place in person. On Wednesday, Peking correspondents state that there was a collision between a few of Yuan's men and the disaffected Boxers, with what result was uncertain. Just on going to press we are assured on more or less reliable information, derived from native preachers who have come in from Cheng Ting, that the so-called Boxers are really only members of the Yung Ching Hui or Associated Villagers, and that their object is the levying of the new tax.

OPIUM.—Chi Kam, priest, was this morning charged with having in his possession 6 Taels of Opium without a valid certificate, and was fined $120 or 2 months.

RUNNING AMOK.—A Malay quartermaster was this morning charged by two Chinamen with cutting and wounding them with an axe on the 12th inst.; sentenced to 2 months' hard labour.

THE LILY OF THE VALLEY and some other flowers have been mentioned in various quarters as likely to receive Royal favour at the British Coronation; but there is not one the Gardener's Magazine declares that is at all likely to be the Coronation flower except the rose.

THE DEMON CYCLIST.—Chang Kit Sang, Clerk, was this morning charged with recklessly riding a bicycle in Des Voeux Road and hunting one Ho Ying, and also with neglecting to carry a lamp between sunset and sunrise. On the first charge he was ordered to pay $5 compensation to the complainant, on the second fined $10 or 14 days.

DEATH ON THE SUNGKIANG.—John S. Gorties, the second engineer of the steamer Sungkiang, died on the 5th inst. very suddenly aboard ship at Manila. The Sungkiang is the first ship to go in from Hongkong without a five day quarantine detention at Mariveles, the quarantine against Hongkong having been raised quite recently.

THE N. Y. K. STEAMER SHINANE MARU. from Hongkong via ports, on her arrival at Kobe, on the 2nd inst., was ordered to be detained for two days at Wada point as one of the Chinese passengers was found to be suffering from a disease suspected to be plague. After an analytical examination the case was certified to be other than plague and the steamer was allowed to go into port.

EXTENSION OF MISSIONS.—A London telegram of 7th inst. to the N. C. D. News says:—Lord Alverstone presided at a meeting that was held to promote more extended and systematic Church Missions in the Far East. A proposal was made to found a second Bishopric in North-China. The Archbishop of Canterbury dwelt on the Church's vast responsibility owing to England's present relations with China and Japan.

KIDNAPPING.—Faa Kam, married woman, and Choy Kam, fishmonger, were this morning charged for unlawfully taking or causing to be taken an unmarried girl named Cheong Ho, being under the age of 16, out of the possession and against the will of her mother on the 19th April, 1902. The case has been remanded from week to week. Bail allowed $1,000. The charge was this morning withdrawn by the Police. Defendants were discharged.

WESTMINSTER'S CORONATION DECORATIONS.—Westminster City Council have settled their scheme of decoration. At Hyde-park-corner an arch will be erected. Piccadilly and the Strand will be lined by venetian masts, joined by wreaths of evergreens and red roses. The piece de resistance is to be a great triumphal arch opposite the Houses of Parliament. This will represent the British Isles, and will consist of three gothic arches.

THE NEW MINING REGULATIONS.—The British, Japanese, and French, Ministers sent a protest to the Chinese Foreign Office, respecting certain clauses in the new regulations compiled by the Mining Bureau. Owing to the protest put forward by Chang Yen Mao the director of the Mining Bureau, telegraphic instructions have been sent to the Viceroy and Governors of the Empire, instructing them to follow the old regulations as before until further notice.

A QUEER CHARGE.—Tam Hay-yun, coolie was this morning charged by Yeung Choy King, prostitute of No. 2 Chang Hing Street, for assaulting and throwing a packet containing human excrement on the complainant's head and body and also damaging her jacket to the extent of $18. On the night of 10th inst., while she was coming back from Hang Fa Lau, the defendant walked slowly in front of the complainant, and she caught hold of him. Defendant discharged.

DUTY ON TEA.—At the request of the tea merchants, H. E. Sheag has memorialised the throne to reduce the export duty on tea. The memorial has met with the favourable consideration of the Government. The memorialist further added that the annual revenue from the export duty on the commodity is estimated at 14,000,000 taels. This reduced duty will bring down this revenue by 2,800,000 taels, which sum, according to the memorialist's calculation, can be easily made up by raising the export duty on silk from 2 per cent to 5 per cent and a slight increase of duty on other commodities, from the former rates will enable the Government to realise 1,500,000 more.

COTTAM & CO. FOR GENTS' BATHING GEAR.

CHINESE MERCHANTS AND TRADERS EULOGISE SIR THOMAS JACKSON.

The rain fell in torrents deluging streets and pavements and everything not under cover. People stayed indoors or crouched beneath verandahs, yet there were many only too willing to face the storm in order to show their appreciation of the eminent services rendered by Sir Thomas Jackson. These were some of the principal Chinese merchants and traders of Hongkong, and they assembled at the City Hall at noon to-day for the purpose of presenting the retiring Chief Manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation with a well merited testimonial.

Mr. Ho Tung occupied the chair, and among others present, in addition to Sir Thomas Jackson and Miss Jackson, were noticed Messrs. Ho Fook, Lau Wei Chuen, Tam Ts' Kong, Leung Shiu Kong, Liao Tze Shan, Yung Yik Ting, Wong Ki Sam, Lau Chin Ting, Wong Kam Fook, Ho Kom Tong, Lo Cheong Shiu, Man Kwong Tin, Tong Lai Chuen, Ip Shun Kam, Kan Tin Hong, Ma Fat Ting, Lau Wan Kai, Leung Yau Po, Chan Oi Ting, Wong Leung Hin, Fung Shu Tong, She Po Shum, Chan Chas Nam, Kwok Sin Low, Chun Lai Sang, Ho Wing, Pan Sow Chuen, Low Hip Chee, and Low Kom Ting.

"GOOD BYE," SIR THOMAS.
Mr. Ho Tung, upon rising to address Sir Thomas Jackson, was loudly applauded. He said:—Sir Thomas Jackson, ladies and gentlemen, The Chinese merchants and traders of Hongkong have met in a body here to-day to formally say "Good-bye" to you on your retirement from the field of your labours in the East. They have done me the honour of electing me as their spokesman on this occasion. I do not propose to detain you, Sir, for many seconds, before proceeding to read the address which has been prepared as a result of a spontaneous desire on the part of its signatories to record in a public manner which one and all have formed of you after so many years of personal acquaintance with your urbanity, goodness of heart, and remarkable genius. (Applause.) These are qualities the possession of any one of which suffices to raise a person in the estimation of his fellow-men. But when they are all combined in one and that one—as you, Sir—wielding so extensive a power for good or evil as the leader in the financial world of the Farther East, it is impossible for those who have benefitted most by that genius not to endeavour to recognise it in some fitting manner. (Applause.) In our humble opinion the means lying within our reach is that of a public address, which we trust you will accept as a genuine expression of the feelings which we all entertain for you. (Applause.) I will now proceed to read the address.

THE HIGH OPINION

Mr. Ho Tung afterwards read the address which was beautifully executed in an illuminated style on vellum, and bound in leather with silver mountings. It was as follows:—

SIR THOMAS JACKSON,
Chief Manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, etc., etc.

Sir,—We, the undersigned members of the Chinese Commercial Community of Hongkong, desire, however inadequately, to pay to you before your departure from Hongkong on retiring from the Chief Managership of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation our humble tribute of admiration for your high moral character, and to express the very high appreciation in which you have been held by us and the sense of loss which we shall feel when you have left these shores.

The Bank, over whose destinies you ruled with such conspicuous ability for the past twenty-six years, enjoys an enormous and ever increasing clientele, and it may be asserted without fear of contradiction that of the very extensive business which it controls in the Farther East by far the largest proportion is that with China and the Chinese. As belonging to that section of the Corporation's constituents we feel as of greater worth the value of the testimony which we have the honour to bear to the most consummate tact and ability which have ever been consistently exercised by you in the management of this great institution's affairs.

The colossal success which the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank can now boast of is the more remarkable when a retrospective view is taken into the pages of History.

When you first joined the institution in August 1866, the Colony was just then beset by a great commercial depression that made its influence felt in almost all the principal branches of business; the stagnation was threatened by a panic in the following year with the closing of certain leading mercantile firms, and was further prolonged throughout the years 1868 and 1869. This period of decline in the commercial prosperity of the Colony, in itself of a serious character, was but the precursor of worse days to come for the Bank, when errors and adversity combined to work the reduction of its Reserve Fund to one hundred thousand dollars and the cessation of dividends for one year.

It was at this critical juncture that you, Sir, were transferred to the helm of affairs as the Acting Chief Manager, only to be confirmed in the substantive appointment five months after. In the face of these difficulties and embroiled as the Bank then was with bad estates, by dint of inherent energy, unceasing care, and indomitable perseverance, the Bank was successfully steered through one of the most acute and prolonged financial crises ever known, until from a depth of adversity and disaster it has been lifted to its present magnificent position of prosperity. The Bank emerged triumphant from a gloom which enveloped it, to a splendour ranking it with the leading banks of the world.

The era of its revival was coincident with your appointment to the supreme command and it is impossible not to see that the increased prosperity which each half-year (with but few exceptions, owing to the vicissitudes of fortune) has recorded, was most closely identified with the name of its Chief Manager.

It is not, however, in financial matters alone that your influence for good has been exercised for the benefit of this Colony. In spite of the cares and anxieties inseparable from your numerous and responsible duties you have found time to serve the Colony on various public occasions, conspicuous amongst which are your honorary treasurerships of the Irish and Indian Famine Relief Funds; the Hongkong Jubilee, the Queen's Diamond, and Queen's Memorial Funds and the Typhoon Relief Fund of 1900, the last by its spontaneous manifestation of sympathy evoking from the Chinese of Hongkong heartfelt gratitude. As member of the Colonial Retrenchment Committee, the Insanitary Properties' Commission, and the Queen's Status Committee, respectively, you devoted your valued services no less to the public weal, and as member of the Legislative Council your wisdom was consulted in the framing of laws for the promotion of our good. In the furtherance of the interests of commerce of our world-renowned port also you took an important part by sharing with the leading gentlemen of the mercantile and shipping communities, their labours in the Chamber of Commerce. And, finally, in fostering the good works of all classes of charitable and religious institutions in Hongkong, without discrimination, your private munificence has long been recognised and without doubt, will find living monuments amongst those who gratefully cherish the name and the memory of a universal benefactor.

The urbanity of your demeanour towards all who are brought into contact with you; the soundness of your judgment in counselling those who have approached you for advice; and the impartiality of your treatment of the Bank's clients have secured for you the respect of all classes alike. They are attributes that entitle you to the highest admiration and should serve as a standard for those who come after you to be guided by.

The limits of an address do not permit us to dilate upon the unvarying kindness and courtesy exhibited by you towards us as a distinct class, and in confining ourselves to an expression of grateful thanks we beg to proffer you the accompanying token which we hope may be found acceptable as a link in the chain of recollection of the very cordial relations that ever existed between yourself and the Chinese merchants and traders of Hongkong.

In bidding you, Sir, "Good-bye," we fervently hope that your life may long be spared that you may enjoy in the home-land the fruits of your long years of honest labour in the East in company with your respected wife, Lady Jackson, and family, for whose Health, Happiness, and continued Prosperity, coupled with your own, our good wishes accompany you wherever you go!

We have the honour to be, Sir, Your most obedient humble Servants,
Then follow a large number of signatures. Mr. Tam Tze Kong having read the address in Chinese the Chairman handed it to Sir Thomas Jackson with the following explanation:—Sir Thomas Jackson we are handing you this address in its present form as it has not been possible for us to get the embroidered work done in Canton in time before your departure. It seemed to us that if it was executed in true Chinese style the address would be a more interesting memento to you from the Chinese.

SIR THOMAS REPLIES.

Mr. Ho Tung and gentlemen, I accept this address at your hands with very great pleasure. It is a very graceful compliment to me on the day before I leave to have such an excellent character given to me and so prettily bound. I have been a long time among you, longer perhaps than most people, but at the same time I can assure you that I never tire of our little Hongkong. This little spot has been very good to me and very good to my family, and we can all look back upon the days we spent here as days of great pleasure (Applause). In Hongkong we have a very happy blending of Eastern and Western enterprise. For these two—to that happy combination—to a great extent, in fact almost entirely, Hongkong at the present time as a commercial market is known all over the world for its wealth its munificence and for its magnificence (applause). We, Sir, in our small way have, all tried to cast a pebble or two upon the mountain of its prosperity. If we look back to 1841—by the way the year I was born—when this Colony was annexed and was merely a fishing village, and when we see what it is now, what sort of an estimate have we got to form of what may take place during the next half century? Why, Sir, I can hardly say any bound that can be set upon the prosperity of this place, as it is, on the borders of a great Empire, an Empire that will not remain still, an Empire that will advance and an Empire that may yet astonish the world. (Applause.) In conclusion, I would only express my very great thanks to all of you gentlemen. I do not wish to detain you much longer, but, indeed, I could say a great deal—a great deal that would perhaps give you pleasure and give myself pleasure too, but I would just earnestly thank you one and all, not only for the compliment you are paying now, but for unvarying kindnesses shown during the whole of my career in Hongkong (Applause).

The Chairman:—Ladies and gentlemen, I am sure you will all join with me in giving three hearty cheers for Sir Thomas Jackson. Three loud cheers and a "tiger" having been given the company dispersed.

THE DIAMOND JUBILEE FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."
SIR,—I have been requested by the Chairman (Hon. C. P. Chater, C.M.G.) of the Diamond Jubilee Committee to forward for publication a statement giving information as regards the work of the Executive Committee up to date. In doing so I may state that, although reports showing the financial and working positions of the Fund have been published in the local Press on two occasions, conveying information up to the date of the withdrawal by the Military Authorities (on certain conditions) of their objections to the proposed construction of the Jubilee Road, it may be useful to again touch on certain points dealt with in both the report of 1898 and that of 1900, in the present communication. Sir Thomas Jackson's (hon. treasurer) financial statement dated 28th February, 1898, shows that the receipts of the general account to that date had amounted to $199,741.94, made up as follows:—

Amount of Foreign Subscriptions $58,635.84
Do. Chinese do. 40,265.44

Received from Hongkong Government 98,892.28

Interest from Bank 1,957.38

$199,741.94

The expenditure up to 28th February, 1898, represented the cost of the celebrations, and amounted to $15,566.56, leaving a balance of $184,381.38 with which to proceed with the erection of the Jubilee Hospital and the construction of the Jubilee Road. During the year 28th February, 1898—28th February, 1899, the expenditure amounted to fifty cents, and the income (bank interest) to $11,318.96, bringing the available balance of general account at date to $195,699.84, which amount was divided equally between the Hospital and Road accounts. From 1st March, 1899, to 30th April, 1902, the receipts and expenditure have been as follows:—

The Hospital will be completed about December next and the additional expenditure from 1st May, 1902, till completion will be about

$55,000.00. The first section of the Road, from

Kennedy Town to Aberdeen, will be completed about December next, and the additional expenditure from 1st May, 1902, till completion will be about $42,000.00. On 1st May, 1902,

the amount at credit of Road and Hospital accounts in the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank was in all $113,429.75, and this is subject to 5 per cent. interest on the daily balance. The delay in proceeding with the Hospital scheme was referred to in a report sent to the local Press on 28th May, 1902. The Committee experienced difficulty in the selection of a suitable site, and in obtaining a favourable tender for the work. Since the work has been in hand bad weather and water scarcity have both contributed to retard the progress of the work.

The architects for the Hospital are Messrs.

Palmer & Turner. The reasons of the delay in proceeding with the Road Scheme were sent to the local Press for publication on 28th May,

1902. The chief delay occurred in consequence of military objections to the line of road from

Kennedy Town to Aberdeen. After much correspondence, including a memorial to the Secretary of State on the subject, the military objections were withdrawn on the following conditions:—

(a.) The road to follow generally the 150 feet contour.

(b.) The revetments on the seaward side of the road to form a 3 feet parapet.

(c.) The platforms over any nullahs the road may cross to be easily removable, and (d.) Protections to be formed at points suitable to serve as gun positions.

Messrs. Denison, Ram and Gibbs, architects, etc., were asked to submit a report and plan of a trace, made to prove the practicability of a road following the 150 ft. contour from Kennedy

Town to Aberdeen. The result was satisfactory, and after certain alterations were made on the trace a plan was submitted for the approval of the Director of Public Works. The approval of the Director of Public Works was received in November, 1900, and on 22nd February, 1901,

Messrs. Denison, Ram and Gibbs forwarded finished plans and specification followed on by nine tenders along with their own recommendations on same, for the consideration of the Executive Committee. The matter at once engaged the attention of the Committee and on the following day (28th March, 1901) I wrote on behalf of the Committee conveying their authority and instruction to Messrs. Denison, Ram and Gibbs to proceed with the work. Satisfactory arrangements were made with the owners of lots through which the road runs on this section. The length of new road including the loop at the Aberdeen end, will be about 4½ miles. From Kennedy Town to Aberdeen the gradients (neglecting small deviations) will be approximately as follows:—

1 mile rising gradient 1 in 20
1 mile falling gradient 1 in 30
1 mile rising gradient 1 in 30
1 mile falling gradient 1 in 20

Being 4½ miles of new road, and 1½ miles old. The road will be 16 ft. wide clear driving space. When the funds at the disposal of the Committee have become exhausted the remaining portion of the road will be constructed by and at the expense of the Government. The following were the original members of the Jubilee (Executive) Committee:—Hon. C. P. Chater, C.M.G., Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart, C.M.G., Hon. Secretary; Sir Thomas Jackson, Hon. Treasurer; Dr. Ho Kai, Hon. R. M. Gray, Mr. W. Danby, and the late Mr. J. J. Francis, K.C.

The Hon. Secretaryship has been held in succession by Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart, Hon. W. Chatham and Mr. J. R. Crook, and on the latter's departure for Gibraltar I succeeded, on 19th July, 1900. Sir Thomas Jackson was succeeded as Hon. Treasurer (whilst retaining his seat as a member of the Committee) by Hon. J. Thurburn, who recently left for home. Hon. T. H. Whitehead was invited to succeed Mr. Thurburn on 2nd May, 1902, and accepted. Hon. R. M. Gray is now in England and Mr. W. Danby has resigned.—Yours, etc.

The following is the report for presentation to the shareholders at the first ordinary general meeting to be held at the office of the General Managers on Saturday, 24th May, at 11 o'clock a.m.

Annexed we beg to lay before shareholders the annual statement of accounts made up to the 28th February 1902.

The working account shows a loss of $10,906.21 and after writing off $9,940.26 for Depreciation of Machinery, etc., there remains a balance of $20,846.47 to be carried forward to the Debit of next year's account.

This result must not however be considered as a fair criterion of the Company's prospects, or of what the result should be of an ordinary year's working. No revenue whatever has been derived from the works at Kowloon, as owing to protracted delays which seem inevitable with all building operations in this Colony, the works over there are only now approaching completion, and at Canton, although the record has been one of steady progress, time has necessarily been consumed in obtaining new customers and in installing the light in their houses, so that even there we have not had the benefit of twelve full months work. In fact the result should be regarded more as preliminary expenses than as an actual loss on working.

CONSULTING COMMITTEE.
In accordance with the Articles of Association, Messrs. C. P. Chater and H. P. White, retire but offer themselves for re-election.

AUDITORS.
The accounts have been audited by Messrs. T. Arnold and W. H. Potts who are recommended for re-election.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The Manila Times of the 6th inst. says—
The details of the encounter with the Mindanao Moros, an account of which was published Saturday afternoon, have now arrived. It seems that the affair was fully as bloody and desperate as first reported. At least, one thousand Moros have bit the dust, while on our side there are comparatively heavy casualties, forty-two being reported.

Among the casualties are five officers and forty-six men. One lieutenant is killed and a major-surgeon, a captain and two lieutenants wounded.

The details of the assault on the Moro fort show that a most stubborn resistance was offered by the savage mountaineers who surround the lake country. The fort was first shelled by the 27th battery of field artillery, with mountain guns, and breaches made in the walls preparatory to attack. The fort having been sufficiently battered to allow free ingress, and the natives being evidently somewhat demoralized, the signal was given to advance, a well-directed rifle fire being meanwhile poured upon the fort to cover the charging party. At the signal the 27th gave a yell and with fixed bayonets stormed up the slopes and through and over the dismantled and tottering walls.

The datos and their men stood firm, and a terrible hand-to-hand encounter ensued, the dead and dying being piled up in heaps inside the fort. It was then seen what deadly execution had been done by McNeil's battery, in the mangled corpses strewn around.

Finally the Moros broke and fled, leaving over a thousand dead and dying. Among the dead were several of the stubborn and recalcitrant datos.

The battle of Bayan, in its fierceness, surpasses most of the encounters with the insurgent Filipinos, the Moro proving himself a most savage and courageous foe.

General Davis in his report of the operations speaks very highly of the work done by the troops under his command, especially of the charge made by the 27th Infantry. He also pays a glowing tribute to Colonel Baldwin commanding the 27th.

The casualties of the battle of Bayan were all members of the 27th Infantry, except Surgeon Porter and Lieutenant Wagner.

The General in his report says that the climate in that island is favorable for recovery, and that the men are receiving excellent care, but will be transferred to Malabang as soon as possible. He says that the report of Lieutenant Weeks having been wounded was a mistake.

sciences, while ten entered the military schools of that country. The three years' limit being now on the point of expiry the students have been ordered by the Governor of Chekiang to return and take charge of the schools of Western Learning and Military Academy recently established in Hangchow. Should any of these returned students, however, show special qualifications or aptitude in any branch of science, which would require further study in Europe, it is proposed by the Hangchow provincial Government to send them abroad for another term of three years to complete their studies. In the meantime it is intended to send another batch of thirty students to Japan to succeed those who are soon to return, and this most commendable scheme, it is reported, is to be kept up successively for four or five terms of three years each.

FAMINE AND SICKNESS IN HUNAN PROVINCE.
A Changsha, capital of Hunan, dispatch to hand states that owing to the drought of the past seven or eight months in the prefectures of Hengchou and Yungchou and the large independent sub-prefectures of Kueiyangchou and Pinchou, in that province, there have been exceedingly poor harvests there. The unfortunate inhabitants have to subsist, in lieu of rice, on a mixture of sweet potatoes and Indian corn ground together with elm-leaves, and this, accompanied by famine fever, is carrying off numbers of people. Furthermore that, although the districts nearer the senior prefecture of Changsha, where are the headquarters of the Governor, Treasurer, and Judge of the province, have had better harvest results, speculators have bought up the greater part of their rice and stored the grain inside the city of Changsha, and have so far refused to sell unless at two and a-half times the usual rates. In consequence of this there is also a scarcity in the region round about Changsha, and there are fears that hunger and discontent will drive the suffering people into rebellion, unless the officials who, so far, have shown a lamentable apathy to the troubles of their subjects, exert themselves to import rice to sell at cost price to them.

THE LATE CHINESE MINISTER TO ST. PETERSBURG.

EXTRAORDINARY REPORT AS TO HIS DEATH.
Peking, May 1st.

Tsai Chun, Chinese Minister to Tokio has resigned on the ground of indisposition. Sung Paochi on the recommendation of Wang Wen-shao will succeed Tsai.

(A Tokio despatch of the 2nd inst. states that Tsai Chun has denied this report.)

A South China Viceroy has telegraphed to the Government a representation for an enquiry as to the cause of the death of Yangju, the late Chinese Minister to St. Petersburg, who is rumoured to have been kicked down the stairs in the Russian Foreign Department. The Viceroy states in his message that if the report is correct it is a disgrace to China. It is also very strange (the Viceroy says) that a son of the deceased should hang himself without observing mourning and the fact may be taken as confirming the rumour to a certain extent. The Viceroy urged the Government to press forward an enquiry and he advised the Government that no one will consent to succeed the deceased if the whole affair is not promptly investigated.

The immigration of the poor Russians into Manchuria has considerably increased lately. The Chinese Minister to Washington has forwarded his resignation several times by wire. —Asahi.

DISTURBED RUSSIA.

THE PEOPLE'S RESISTANCE.

In view of the grave news from Russia, as reported by Reuters, the following clipping from the Advocate of India, may be of interest:—Speculations upon the outbreak of the next great war have long been associated in the minds of political thinkers with the potential readiness of the Russian Empire to press towards the realisation of certain well-recognised ambitions by the employment of her military and naval resources.

It has often been said by those who discredit any possibility of hostilities: "Oh, Russia is not ready for war," as though this fact formed the safety-valve of an ever-anxious political situation.

Is, then, the assumption that Russia should be absolutely ready armed, cap-a-pie, before she next finds herself involved in war, an unavoidable axiom in our speculations as to the future? If so, it would almost seem as though the destiny of an all-absorbing Pan-Slavism were to be assured by the direct interposition of Providence.

It seems, however, well within the range of human comprehension that dispensations beyond our vision, and, therefore, little considered in the arena of "practical politics," may, in the interests of other races, refrain from placing so severe a handicap upon their efforts to advance upon the lines of separate national existence.

DENIED A PRIVILEGE.

In other words, Russia may be denied the privilege of choosing her own time and place. It is well within the range of political calculation that her Government may be prematurely forced to recognise in war with a foreign Power the only means of encountering the alarming spread of popular revolution against the despotism of autocracy.

The latest news from Russia on this head is exceedingly disquieting. The most drastic measures, the most efficient supervision, have failed to limit the spread of revolutionary doctrines and agitation to a particular class as heretofore. The Russian censorship has been vigorously exerted to burke any accurate outside knowledge of what is going on. But the details which have reached us are sufficient to make it very clear that the long smouldering aspirations of the people for freedom from the suffocating despotism of their present regime have begun to assume a very dangerous appearance.

But be the outcome what it may, our object is to show that apprehensions of Russia's war power, which are largely induced by the specious glamour of her colossal aspect, can be vastly exaggerated.

There is nowhere so lively a perception of the very great weakness of Russia as one finds in Russia itself. Russian thinkers are able to recognise that her enormous expansion has been merely the subjugation of a lumber of semi-barbarian tribes in Asia; and, moreover, they are well aware of a graver source of weakness still. For what anyone who has mixed much with all classes of the Russian people must remember as his most startling impression is the almost universal longing for defeat in some great campaign.

TERRIBLE DESPAIR.

The expression of this feeling, the offspring of a terrible despair to the present condition of the country, is to be heard in North or in Southern Russia, East or West, wherever the speakers are able men and women, who love their country and country's freedom. Among the most varied classes of society and people entirely unacquainted with one another, there exists this strangely ardent desire for defeat in a coming war. For no other possibility of liberation from the vast accumulation of misery seems to present itself to Russians who are inspired by the greatest love for their country than the debacle which an unsuccessful war would entail upon their ruling system.

To us such a spirit must be astounding, and its widespread existence in Russia at the present moment, while it may induce the Government of the Tsar to regard war as a necessary political diversion, must inevitably deprive the great northern Power of that unity and cohesion which are absolutely indispensable to the successful employment of armed force.

But in addition to this element of weakness, even the armed force of Russia, with its imposing array of millions, has from time to time exhibited traces of this same socialistic yearning for freedom and emancipation with which despotism will surely have to reckon "it" the day, perhaps, of its greatest need. One other point, too, should be remembered by those who have grown to fear the irresistibility of Russian military power. Brave and obedient as the Russian soldier undoubtedly is, neither in training nor in that intelligent individualism so indispensable in modern warfare is he in any way comparable with the troops of Great Britain, Germany, or France.

To his officers, except in certain picked corps, where they receive special military education and training, the same description applies: and the last big Russian manoeuvres were marked by the most ridiculous mistakes on the part of the commissioned ranks, both high and low.

It is probable, for instance, that without the support of their ally, the Russian hosts would not have the slightest chance against the highly trained armies of the Kaiser; while as to the much debated advance on India, the British soldiers, Sikh or Goorkha, will not find their match in the hordes of the Muscovite on mountain or on plain.

BRUTAL SCENES ENACTED IN ST. PETERSBURG.

For several days past leaflets have been scattered broadcast in St. Petersburg calling on the people to meet to-day (March 16th) in front of the Kazan Cathedral.

This morning the whole of the vast square was occupied by mounted gendarmes and troops, which had been moved in overnight with the object of preventing the meeting. Other troops were drawn up to prevent the workmen marching from Schlossburg and other factory centres to the place of meeting.

The military force in the Nevsky Prospect was most imposing, while numbers of troops were concealed in public buildings and in by-ways.

In spite of all these precautions, a large body of students gathered in the side streets off the Nevsky Prospect, and marched to the Catholic Church, carrying red flags. In the Nevsky Prospect enormous crowds of people assembled pouring in from all sides, most of them being workmen. Troops of cavalry dashed among them, scattering the people into the side streets, the Cossacks using their metal-tipped whips freely. A band of students, males, were surrounded by a mounted force, who CHARGED THEM WITH DRAWN SABRES, cutting and thrusting and riding them down.

The students, who numbered 1,200, and included many women, were badly knocked about. Several hundred of them were wounded and thrown into the cellars and basements of the hotels and shops in the neighbourhood, and kept there without medical aid or food until evening, when they were taken to the police station.

Meanwhile a fierce fight was going on in front of the town hall, where some 5,000 workmen, led by students, had gone to demonstrate. The gendarmes and Cossacks charged again and again, slashing with swords and whips, and were met with stones and other missiles.

Many of the police were injured, and an officer was killed.

Two hundred and eighty students, including several women, were arrested, and many on-lookers were injured.

By one o'clock the Nevsky Prospect was cleared, but small crowds continued to give the authorities trouble in the side streets.
